By initialing the sections below, Adopter agrees to the following:

- INITIAL Adopted animal will be a house pet and will receive the care and attention necessary to ensure its health and well-being. This will include providing at all times sufficient nutrition, water, exercise, medical care, licensing as necessary and any other necessities consistent with responsible pet ownership including protecting it against any form of abuse, neglect or abandonment. Tri-Valley Animal Rescue should be contacted if the Adopter is no longer able to care for this animal. Tri-Valley Animal Rescue will make every effort to take the animal back whenever possible.
- INITIAL Cats - Declaw. Declawing is an extremely painful and unnecessary surgical procedure. Residual pain often remains after the physical healing has taken place and can result in behavior issues such as failure to use the litter box and an increase in aggression. Adopter agrees not to declaw this animal.
- INITIAL Cats – Indoor Benefits. Cats that live indoors are spared the hazards of outdoor living such as: death by cars, poisons and animal attacks; parasites, viruses and other disease; stranger cruelty; getting lost; capture by animal control; and theft – just to name an expensive few! Adopter acknowledges that keeping their cat indoors is the best way to keep it safe and avoid unnecessary health costs.
- INITIAL Health Disclosure. Adopter agrees to accept this animal in "AS-IS" condition and agrees that Tri-Valley Animal Rescue makes no guarantees as to the health, temperament or behavior of the animal once it leaves TVAR's custody. Adopter will be responsible for and hereby releases TVAR from liability in connection with this animal. Adopter further understands all medical bills incurred for this animal and animals already in Adopter's home will be solely their own financial responsibility. For cats - Adopter agrees to execute the TVAR Health Disclosure agreement.
- INITIAL Photo Release. TVAR reserves the right to use any and all archived photos of this animal for future PR and advertising purposes.
- INITIAL Dog Training. Adopter agrees to provide their dog with behavioral training.
